Since its founding in 1996, St. Augustine's Press has grown to become one of the premier scholarly presses in the United States. It is no exaggeration to say that it is the most conservative scholarly press in the country.

Strongly Catholic, St. Augustine's Press likewise publishes strong pro-Western titles which have pro-Judeo-Christian affinity. The University of Chicago warehouses, ships and collects for this Press. Both renowned modern authors as well as classical are no strangers here. This Press focuses its attention on the timeless work over the timely, the classical over the typical, the orthodox over the heterodox.

This list for rent to you is truly a gem. It will respond to Catholic publishers' offers as well as to the appeals, causes, and needs promoted by Catholic and Christian fundraisers.

One of a kind!
